Two-Factor Authentication For SellYourCorn

MARCH 2015

Two-Factor Authentication (2FA)

- An additional level of security will be added to the SellYourCorn website on March 30th
- The same kind of login system that banks use
- This change is to add another level of protection to your information
- Two factors:
 - Something you know (a PIN, a password, or a secret)
 - Something you have (a mobile phone, a computer, or another device)
- SecureAuth third-party login system that will remember your computer or smart phone for one year
- Login options to set up a new device
 - Have a code sent to your email
 - Have a code sent to your phone via text message
 - Have a code sent to your phone via automated phone call
 - Answer a security question
 - You will set up 3 questions when you log in for the first time
- If you get locked out, you will receive an email
 - Our web admins will still be able to unlock your account (no need to contact a different company)
